

ADLER & BRO.
Boots & Shoes

No. 261 Main Street.

(Heubler's Old Stand).

MEMPHIS, TENN.

Unprecedented Bargains!
B. LOWENSTEIN & BROS.

Men's Gauze Shirts reduced from 40c to 25c
" " " 50c to 35c
" " " 60c to 45c
" " " 75c to 60c
" " " $1.25 to $1.00
" " [regular] " 1.50 to 1.25
" " " 1.75 to 1.50
" " " 2.25 to 2.00
" French Lace " 1.00 to 90c
" " " 1.50 to 1.25
" Balbriggan " 1.75 to 1.50
" French " 1.50 to 1.25
" French Lisle " 2.00 to 1.75
" French Pearl " 2.50 to 2.25
" Ladies' Gauze Vests " 1.00 to 90c
" " " 1.50 to 1.25
" " " 2.00 to 1.75
" French Lace " 1.00 to 75c
" " Pearl Lisle " 2.00 to 1.75
" Balbriggan Regular " 1.50 to 1.00

Children's Gauze Vests reduced in proportion.
"G" Unlaundered Shirts, best, reduced from $1.50 to $1.25
King " " 1.25 to 1.12 1-2
Favorite " " 1.00
"55" " " 85 to 75c
Best Jean Drawers reduced to : : 85c
" Nainsook " " : : 85c
Fancy Night Shirts " to : : 1.75
Ladies' and Gents' Silk Vests reduced to attractive prices.

B. Lowenstein & Bros.
GEO. MITCHELL

(Successor to Mitchell, Hoffman & Co.) has the largest and best assorted stock of

FURNITURE,
CARPETS, CURTAINS, OIL-CLOTHS
IN THE SOUTH, AT LOW PRICES.

No. 308 MAIN STREET : : Memphis, Tennessee.

HILL, FONTAINE & CO.,

Cotton Factors

Wholesale Grocers

293 and 298 Front St., 116 South Main St.,
MEMPHIS, TENN. ST. LOUIS, MO.

GAS FIXTURES.

Plumbing, Gas and Steam Fitting,
PUMPS, PIPES, HOSE, ETC.

J. W. X. BROWNE, 40 Madison Street.

LOUIS DUSH,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
Stoves, Ranges, Mantels and Grates, Hollow-Ware and Castings
Manufacturer of Plain & Japanned Tinware, Copper & Sheet Iron Ware.
A Well Selected Stock of Lamps, Lamp Chimneys, Etc.
Agent for the Celebrated

Van's Cooking Range.
304 Main Street, Memphis, Tenn.

Roofing, Gutters, Repairs, etc., promptly attended to.

R. G. Craig & Co.
MEMPHIS, TENN.

REAPING AND MOWING Machines.

SULKY RAKES, STOCK PEAS
FERTILIZERS,

Guns, Land Plaster and Phosphate.
R. G. CRAIG & CO., Memphis, Tenn.

H. BUTTENBERG
Manufacturer of all kinds of

Awnings and Tents,
Mattresses and Upholstering.

Furniture Repaired, Varished, Packed
AND STORED.

ALL work done in the best style and guaranteed.

MEMPHIS
STEAM LAUNDRY

224 Second St.,
Between Jefferson and Adams.

ALL kinds of Washing and Ironing done in first class style by Troy machinery.
A specialty made of Collars, Cuffs and Ladies'
Fine Underwear. Work from other towns returned the same day as received. 83 1st

ELECTION NOTICE.

THE annual election for Nine (9) Directors, to serve the Hernando Insurance Co. of the ensuing year, will be held at the Company's office, No. 22 Madison street, on MONDAY,
 June 12th, prox., between the hours of 10 a.m.
 and 3 p.m. F. M. NELSON, Sec'y. 67 93

PUBLIC

LEDGER.

LOEB & MOOK'S
SHIRTS
And Underwear

MADE TO ORDER.

235 and 237 Main St.

VOL. XXXIV.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE: WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 7, 1882.

NO. 85.

CHICAGO.

Railroad Officers--The Striking
Brickmakers--The Prohibitionists--Tunnel Explosion.

CHICAGO, June 7.--The Chicago & Western Indiana railroad has released its old directors and officers. The South and West Side striking brickmakers have unexpectedly refused to accept the compromise and return to work; the North Side yards are, however, in full operation, and it is hoped the others will resume work to day.

A Madison, Wisconsin special says: The Wisconsin State Prohibition Organization has been incorporated. Its objects are to secure the submission of a prohibitory amendment to the people, and compel its enforcement. Its first meeting was held last evening. Officers were elected and steps taken to organize the various counties and towns, to raise money and carry out the purposes of the Association.

A San Antonio, Texas, special says: A terrible explosion in tunnel No. 1, on the G. & T. railway extension, occurred yesterday. Two hundred and fifty kegs of blasting powder were touched off by the workmen on the east end of the extension. The workmen at the west end were at once overwhelmed with earth, rocks and trees. Three were killed and five wounded.

Good Showing.
NEW YORK, June 7.--The earnings of the Western Union Telegraph Company increased $300,000 during the past five months of the year.

Star Route Case.
WASHINGTON, June 7.--In the Criminal Court Mr. Wilson continued the opening argument, for the defense, in the Star Route cases.

Manhattan Divvy.
NEW YORK, June 7.--The Manhattan Elevated declares a quarterly dividend of one and one-half per cent on first and second preferred.

Bishop Foss' Condition Critical.
MINNEAPOLIS, June 7.--Bishop Foss had another chill last evening, lasting about half an hour. This morning he is reported recovering from the effects of the chill, though his condition is again considered somewhat critical.

Ross, the Oarsman.
TORONTO, June 7.--Wallace Ross passed through this city this morning, on his way to Winnipeg. An additional five hundred dollars has been deposited for his race with Hanlan. Ross will give no definite information as to the postponement of the race on account of Hanlan's illness, but said he would do the right thing.

Liverpool Markets.
LIVERPOOL, June 7.--Bacon--Long clear, dull, 55s, 6d; short rib, steady, 54s, 6d; short clear, steady, 58s, 6d. Shoulders--Steady, 45s. Beef--Extra India mess, steady, 134s. Hams--Long cut, steady, 65s. Cheese--American choice, firmer, 57s. Corn--Mixed old, dull, 6s, 2d. Turpentine Spirits--Steady, 37s, 6d; at London, steady, 38s. Wheat--Winter, steady, 10s, 4d.

The Code Duello.
NEW ORLEANS, June 7.--A duel was fought this morning at Slaughter House Point between Major E. A. Burke, of the Times-Democrat, and C. H. Parker, editor of the Picayune. Pistols were used and five shots were exchanged. At the fifth shot Major Burke was shot through the thigh. His wound is not considered dangerous.

Wolf in Sheep's Garments.
MANCHESTER, N. H., June 6.--There is no individual more justly held in contempt, when he is found out, than the sanctimonious, alleged holiness a cloak under which he can the better cheat his fellow-men. Of all individuals, too, he has the most unlimited quantity of that commodity variously known as "cheek" and "brass" and "gall." An illustration of this is given in the case of Willis A. Shaw, a clerk for a furnishing house in this city. He was implicitly trusted, was a zealous church member, and an active worker for the Young Men's Christian Association. He was recently detected in stealing from his employers, and then confessed that he had been pilfering for the past seven years, and that the total amount was many thousands of dollars. His zeal in religious work won for him the offer of General Secretaryship of the Young Men's Christian Association at Concord, N. H., with a salary of $1200 a year. He evidently did not think that his repeated infractions of the eight commandment incapacitated him for doing association work, for he proposed to his employers to take the position in Concord, and from his salary to pay the stealings. Impudence could not go much further.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

LONDON, June 7.--The Royal Hunt cup was won by Sweetbread; Edger second, Seesaw third.

The Ascot Derby was won by Shot-over; Battlefield second, Sprinckell third.

Davitt in a speech at Liverpool last night said: He was in favor of land becoming national property. He considered that the soil of Ireland could be purchased for the tenants for £140,000,000 in government bonds repayable in fifty years. He denounced the Dublin castle rule as a monstrous failure.

Ohio Republicans.

COLUMBUS, O., June 7.--The Republican State Convention convened at 11 a.m., the attendance being unusually large. Senator D. A. Hollingsworth was elected temporary Chairman.

Storm in North Carolina.

PETERSBURG, VA., June 5.--A storm in Northampton county, North Carolina, yesterday, ruined the cotton, wheat and corn crops. Fetter's Academy and many other larger buildings were demolished by the wind. The telegraph poles on the Seaboard & Roanoke railroad were blown down. Two more persons are reported killed.

Want a Few Offices.

The colored people of New York print a paper called the Globe, and a recent number contains the following: "Pennsylvania's colored population of 85,535 is as completely ignored by the politicians as if it did not contain 30,000 colored voters, while the colored population of New York, numbering about 65,000 souls, with a voting force of 25,000, enters no more into the calculations of politicians here than if it was a disfranchised element. Massachusetts is the only one of these States, as far as we know, where a colored man has been honored with a seat in the Legislature; welcome in a state of masterly inactivity, and are as happy and unconcerned as though we were a simple lot. Here and there some restless soul wrings from the avaricious grasp of a ward politician a five dollar bill for political services of a highly questionable nature, but on the whole the tide of favor flows over us as water slides off a duck's back." Let the office hunting colored folks emigrate South. We have numerous colored officials hereabout, and prospects indicate a few more.

River Telegrams.

CAIRO, June 7.--Arrived: J. B. Williams, 8 p.m.; Pittsburgh, 8 p.m.; City of Helena, Memphis, 1 a.m.; Raymond Horner, New Orleans, 5 a.m.; Golden Rule, Cincinnati, 7 a.m.; John Gilmore, New Orleans, 9 a.m.; St. Genieve, Memphis, 8 p.m.; J. R. Williams, Louisville, 9 a.m.; Vint Shinkle, Memphis, 9 a.m.; Pittsburg, St. Louis 11 a.m.; City of Helena, St. Louis, 3 a.m.; Raymond Horner, Louisville, 8 a.m.; Golden Rule, New Orleans, 10 a.m.; John Gilmore, St. Louis, 11 a.m.

EVANSVILLE, June 7.--Arrived: A. T. Dexter, Cairo, 8 a.m. No departure. A large towboat and tow passed down at midnight, and a little tug with four pile drivers for the government, passed down this morning.

Weather clear, warm and windy with a brisk breeze from the southwest. Mercury 64 to 72 degrees. River 3 1/2 feet and falling.

Horrible Crime.

ST. LOUIS, June 7.--A dispatch from Cairo, Illinois, this morning, says J. W. Bayles, a farmer, between fifty and sixty years of age, living about three and a half miles from Vienna, Illinois, on the Wabash railroad, was most foully murdered. It seems that he had been sitting by a small lamp, reading, when the assassins entered and tied him to the chair in which he was sitting. They then tied his hands behind him and his feet together. When found his feet were burned to a crisp by the lamp being held under them. They then split his head with an ax and searched the house. When through, they cut the bridge with which he was bound to the chair and shoved him over on the floor, where he was found by some of his neighbors. No clue to the perpetrators of this horrible crime has as yet been obtained.

Julia Hunt's "Florine."

Correspondence of the Courier-Journal.
NEW YORK, May 30.--The Park Theater announced last night Sydney Rosenfeld's dramatic romance "Florine," produced under the personal management of the author. The word "romance" must have been used advisedly. The play in question is a wholesale theft. Taking out the mangling of Mr. Rosenfeld and restoring the play to its condition where this author fell foul of it, we have "Hermione, the Child of Fortune," once the property of Methuselah Schiller, but now belonging to Maggie Mitchell, who bought the manuscript from her. It was old fashioned in construction, and at the request of Maggie Mitchell I took the play and altered its movements in such a manner that no change of scene was called for during any one of the five acts. Having read it over two or three times, its story, situations, and even the very language, were perfectly fresh in my memory. I think the manuscript dates back over twenty years, and the play will doubtless be remembered in the Northwest, where the German actress was accustomed to star. The English of the play was not altogether presentable, and Mad. Schiller gave the drama to Stephen Fiske to correct it and put it in good shape. His name is on the manuscript, which is in Maggie Mitchell's possession. The play was probably written before Mr. Rosenfeld was born, and his assumption of authorship in this case is positively ludicrous, going to the extent that it does in claiming to have created this old play. It is a matter of regret that he did not confine himself to what was already written. As it is, he has the satisfaction of spoiling one of the prettiest five-act comedy dramas ever snatched from the foreigner. It is some consolation to know that his corps of executioners were in perfect accord with their director. Worse acting has never been seen in a New York theater, which is saying a good deal.

A Big Ship.

New Orleans Picayune, 3rd.
There arrived early at her wharf at the Bull's head, the largest steamship that ever crossed the bar, or that ever arrived at New Orleans. This fine model of naval architecture is the Dupuy de Lome, Captain Recloux, formerly of the Martinique Transatlantic Line, commanding. The Dupuy de Lome is the pioneer steamship of Compagnie Generale de Navigation a Vapeur Ligne Francaise, running between Havre and New Orleans, touching at New York, on route, to land passengers for that city. The company has a capital of 12,000,000 francs, and in addition to the Dupuy de Lome, have built the

USE DEAN'S BEST TEAS!

And Fresh Roasted Coffee.
WM. DEAN & CO., 189 POPLAR ST.

How to Compliment a Mean Man

A new way to compliment a mean man is to say: "He is pretty mean in some respects, but then, after all, he is meaner in other respects." That sort of lets the mean man down easy, and makes him think he is not so con-founded, alfred mean after all."

Storm in North Carolina.

PETERSBURG, VA., June 5.--A storm in Northampton county, North Carolina, yesterday, ruined the cotton, wheat and corn crops. Fetter's Academy and many other larger buildings were demolished by the wind. The telegraph poles on the Seaboard & Roanoke railroad were blown down. Two more persons are reported killed.

Want a Few Offices.

The colored people of New York print a paper called the Globe, and a recent number contains the following: "Pennsylvania's colored population of 85,535 is as completely ignored by the politicians as if it did not contain 30,000 colored voters, while the colored population of New York, numbering about 65,000 souls, with a voting force of 25,000, enters no more into the calculations of politicians here than if it was a disfranchised element. Massachusetts is the only one of these States, as far as we know, where a colored man has been honored with a seat in the Legislature; welcome in a state of masterly inactivity, and are as happy and unconcerned as though we were a simple lot. Here and there some restless soul wrings from the avaricious grasp of a ward politician a five dollar bill for political services of a highly questionable nature, but on the whole the tide of favor flows over us as water slides off a duck's back." Let the office hunting colored folks emigrate South. We have numerous colored officials hereabout, and prospects indicate a few more.

Rival Lines in Colorado.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.
About two weeks ago the Denver & New Orleans railroad opened its line from Denver to Pueblo. This was virtually parallel to the Denver & Rio Grande road. A hot competition in passenger rates almost immediately ensued, and the fare between the two cities now is $1, against $7.50 before the war began. Ex-Governor John Evans, President of the Denver & New Orleans Railroad Company, who is now in this city, said last night to a Tribune reporter:

"The extraordinary opposition made by the Denver & Rio Grande Company to the Denver & New Orleans railroad enterprise is to all reasonable men unaccountable, if not ridiculous. There should be no unfriendly relations between the two companies on any reasonable business view of the case. The Rio Grande is narrow-gauge, and is intended to bring its business from the mountain mining regions to the plains. Its eastern and southern railroad connections are its outlets to the East and the outer world. The Denver and New Orleans is a broad or standard gauge line. Its main object is to connect the system of railroads which is to extend from Denver to and over the New Northwest with Atlantic tidewater on the Gulf of Mexico at Galveston and New Orleans. They obstructed our crossing of their track--our entrance to the Union Depot at Denver--until we beat them in the courts, and now they cut their rates to injure us. Now cutting rates injures their company five times as much as it does ours. It throws away their profits on the part of their road from which they derive their principal earnings. Our company did not want to cut rates, but will now insist on a fair division of the competitive business on an equitable basis before any settlement of the difficulty is made. In fact, it is certain that no adjustment of rates between the Union Pacific, Burlington & Quincy, Atchafalpa, Topeka & Santa Fe and the Denver & Rio Grande can be carried out that does not include a fair arrangement with the Denver & New Orleans Company for its share of the business between Denver and Pueblo."

New Plays.

St. Louis Republicans.
The next dramatic season promises to be unusually prolific of new plays. Until within a few years, no manager would touch either American plays or plays by American authors; now they are becoming all the rage, and threaten to take possession of our stage. The first rich American vein was found in character, and developed Kit Redding, Davy Crockett, Colonel Sellers, Bardwell Slote, Joshua Whitcomb, Deacon Crankett and others of marked characteristics. The next lead was struck on the border, in the conflict between advancing civilization and retreating barbarism, and developed in stage scenes the situations of American pioneer life. It has given us Joe Sanders, Sandy McGee, M'Lisa and many other strongly marked relatives and associates. The plays in which these characters are set are among the most popular of the day, and there are more coming. The latest success in this line of dramatic effort is a play entitled "A Square Man," by Mr. Edward J. Schwartz, and secured by that enterprising manager, J. M. Hill. It was recently on trial in Brooklyn, New York, and its success was most pronounced. The novelty of "A Square Man" promises to be one of the particular dramatic attractions of next season. The scene is laid in the mountains and mines of the far West; the people are homogenous, and the action is such as grows naturally out of the situation. There is a big-hearted miner, Jack Kenyon; a brave, wild beauty, Blossom; and a villain to make them trouble. B. Maginley, as Jack the Square Man, and Libby Nixon, as Blossom, made the Brooklyn success. Mr. Hill has also purchased a play entitled "House of Mauprat," with which he will make a public venture next season. What with Whitcomb and Crankett, "All the Rage," "A Square Man," and a brilliant girl, Margaret Mather, Hill will have his hands full next season.

Irving Coming to America.

London Cable Letter to Herald, June 4.
Mr. Henry E. Abbey, who managed the American tour of Sarah Bernhardt and Adeline Patti, has succeeded in inducing Mr. Henry Irving to accept an engagement for a professional tour in America. Mr. Irving will probably make his first appearance in New York, October 29, 1882, and will remain in the United States for six months. He will be accompanied by Miss Ellen Terry and his whole company, and will take with him the whole of his scenery and properties, which are of great value, and will necessitate chartering a ship for transportation from London.

A Big Ship.

New Orleans Picayune, 3rd.
There arrived early at her wharf at the Bull's head, the largest steamship that ever crossed the bar, or that ever arrived at New Orleans. This fine model of naval architecture is the Dupuy de Lome, Captain Recloux, formerly of the Martinique Transatlantic Line, commanding. The Dupuy de Lome is the pioneer steamship of Compagnie Generale de Navigation a Vapeur Ligne Francaise, running between Havre and New Orleans, touching at New York, on route, to land passengers for that city. The company has a capital of 12,000,000 francs, and in addition to the Dupuy de Lome, have built the

How to Compliment a Mean Man

A new way to compliment a mean man is to say: "He is pretty mean in some respects, but then, after all, he is meaner in other respects." That sort of lets the mean man down easy, and makes him think he is not so con-founded, alfred mean after all."

Storm in North Carolina.

PETERSBURG, VA., June 5.--A storm in Northampton county, North Carolina, yesterday, ruined the cotton, wheat and corn crops. Fetter's Academy and many other larger buildings were demolished by the wind. The telegraph poles on the Seaboard & Roanoke railroad were blown down. Two more persons are reported killed.

Want a Few Offices.

The colored people of New York print a paper called the Globe, and a recent number contains the following: "Pennsylvania's colored population of 85,535 is as completely ignored by the politicians as if it did not contain 30,000 colored voters, while the colored population of New York, numbering about 65,000 souls, with a voting force of 25,000, enters no more into the calculations of politicians here than if it was a disfranchised element. Massachusetts is the only one of these States, as far as we know, where a colored man has been honored with a seat in the Legislature; welcome in a state of masterly inactivity, and are as happy and unconcerned as though we were a simple lot. Here and there some restless soul wrings from the avaricious grasp of a ward politician a five dollar bill for political services of a highly questionable nature, but on the whole the tide of favor flows over us as water slides off a duck's back." Let the office hunting colored folks emigrate South. We have numerous colored officials hereabout, and prospects indicate a few more.

Rival Lines in Colorado.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.
About two weeks ago the Denver & New Orleans railroad opened its line from Denver to Pueblo. This was virtually parallel to the Denver & Rio Grande road. A hot competition in passenger rates almost immediately ensued, and the fare between the two cities now is $1, against $7.50 before the war began. Ex-Governor John Evans, President of the Denver & New Orleans Railroad Company, who is now in this city, said last night to a Tribune reporter:

"The extraordinary opposition made by the Denver & Rio Grande Company to the Denver & New Orleans railroad enterprise is to all reasonable men unaccountable, if not ridiculous. There should be no unfriendly relations between the two companies on any reasonable business view of the case. The Rio Grande is narrow-gauge, and is intended to bring its business from the mountain mining regions to the plains. Its eastern and southern railroad connections are its outlets to the East and the outer world. The Denver and New Orleans is a broad or standard gauge line. Its main object is to connect the system of railroads which is to extend from Denver to and over the New Northwest with Atlantic tidewater on the Gulf of Mexico at Galveston and New Orleans. They obstructed our crossing of their track--our entrance to the Union Depot at Denver--until we beat them in the courts, and now they cut their rates to injure us. Now cutting rates injures their company five times as much as it does ours. It throws away their profits on the part of their road from which they derive their principal earnings. Our company did not want to cut rates, but will now insist on a fair division of the competitive business on an equitable basis before any settlement of the difficulty is made. In fact, it is certain that no adjustment of rates between the Union Pacific, Burlington & Quincy, Atchafalpa, Topeka & Santa Fe and the Denver & Rio Grande can be carried out that does not include a fair arrangement with the Denver & New Orleans Company for its share of the business between Denver and Pueblo."

New Plays.

St. Louis Republicans.
The next dramatic season promises to be unusually prolific of new plays. Until within a few years, no manager would touch either American plays or plays by American authors; now they are becoming all the rage, and threaten to take possession of our stage. The first rich American vein was found in character, and developed Kit Redding, Davy Crockett, Colonel Sellers, Bardwell Slote, Joshua Whitcomb, Deacon Crankett and others of marked characteristics. The next lead was struck on the border, in the conflict between advancing civilization and retreating barbarism, and developed in stage scenes the situations of American pioneer life. It has given us Joe Sanders, Sandy McGee, M'Lisa and many other strongly marked relatives and associates. The plays in which these characters are set are among the most popular of the day, and there are more coming. The latest success in this line of dramatic effort is a play entitled "A Square Man," by Mr. Edward J. Schwartz, and secured by that enterprising manager, J. M. Hill. It was recently on trial in Brooklyn, New York, and its success was most pronounced. The novelty of "A Square Man" promises to be one of the particular dramatic attractions of next season. The scene is laid in the mountains and mines of the far West; the people are homogenous, and the action is such as grows naturally out of the situation. There is a big-hearted miner, Jack Kenyon; a brave, wild beauty, Blossom; and a villain to make them trouble. B. Maginley, as Jack the Square Man, and Libby Nixon, as Blossom, made the Brooklyn success. Mr. Hill has also purchased a play entitled "House of Mauprat," with which he will make a public venture next season. What with Whitcomb and Crankett, "All the Rage," "A Square Man," and a brilliant girl, Margaret Mather, Hill will have his hands full next season.

Irving Coming to America.

London Cable Letter to Herald, June 4.
Mr. Henry E. Abbey, who managed the American tour of Sarah Bernhardt and Adeline Patti, has succeeded in inducing Mr. Henry Irving to accept an engagement for a professional tour in America. Mr. Irving will probably make his first appearance in New York, October 29, 1882, and will remain in the United States for six months. He will be accompanied by Miss Ellen Terry and his whole company, and will take with him the whole of his scenery and properties, which are of great value, and will necessitate chartering a ship for transportation from London.

A Big Ship.

New Orleans Picayune, 3rd.
There arrived early at her wharf at the Bull's head, the largest steamship that ever crossed the bar, or that ever arrived at New Orleans. This fine model of naval architecture is the Dupuy de Lome, Captain Recloux, formerly of the Martinique Transatlantic Line, commanding. The Dupuy de Lome is the pioneer steamship of Compagnie Generale de Navigation a Vapeur Ligne Francaise, running between Havre and New Orleans, touching at New York, on route, to land passengers for that city. The company has a capital of 12,000,000 francs, and in addition to the Dupuy de Lome, have built the Trustee's Sale.

ON WEDNESDAY, 28th day of June, 1882, in front of 22 Madison street, Memphis, I will sell for cash to the highest bidder, part of lot 13, block 51, Turkey street, fronting 25 feet on east side Turley and running back 50 feet. See book 132, p. 74. Real estate office for trust deed under which I sell.
85 102 W. W. GOODWIN, Trustee.

Non-Resident Notice.

No. 4492--In the Chancery Court of Shelby county, Tenn.--Thomas Bonnell vs. George Harper et al.
It appearing from the bill which is sworn to in this cause, that the defendants, George Harper, Ann Hallows and William Hallows are non-residents of the State of Tennessee, it is therefore ordered that they make their appearance herein, at the courthouse of Shelby county, in Memphis, Tenn., on or before the first Monday in August, 1882, and answer or demur to the complaint filed, or the same will be taken for confessed, and that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Public Ledger.

Notice to Ladies.

Madame Alexander Godard
H. S. GORDON, opposite Postoffice, where ladies who wish to patronize her will find said.